Harris claims to come under provisions of the rule as he possesses a British qualification which he says has necessarily prolonged his course of study.

I request the favor of early orders of Government on his application as the competitive examination will probably be held in the first week in March.

OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL

WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Madras, 27 February

SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Madras,

To

THE Honble the Chief Secy. to Government
Public Department,

SIR,

I have the honor to submit the orders of Government the enclosed letter from Mr. B. Harris D.R.C. Pand who has applied for permission to appear as a candidate at the Competitive Examination about be held to fill a vacancy in the Assistant Surgeon grade.

2. As Mr. Harris was more 25 years of age he was informed that under Article 63 Civil Service Regulations he could not appear at the Examination; it will be seen from the enclosed letter that he bases his claim to be allowed to appear under rule III of the Article quoted above which extends the limit in the case of Mr. B. Candidates and
