From H. W. FOSTER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 22nd December 1893, No. 3408.

With reference to G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, Public, I am directed to state that the Honorable the Chief Justice and Judges see no objection to the adoption of the third-class vernacular test in the case of District Munsifs, subject to the limitation mentioned in the fourth paragraph of the order. They approve of Rule VI in Appendix A, making all appointments to the Provincial Service subject to a two years' period of probation. In clause V (a) of the appendix, it seems desirable to insert the words "Vakils, Attorneys" after "Advocates," and a similar modification would then be necessary in clause VIII.

2. As regards the training of Subordinate Judges in criminal work, the High Court thinks that the suggestion to appoint them Assistant Sessions Judges under section 9, Criminal Procedure Code, to try such sessions cases as may be referred to them under the last clause of section 193 of that code, is the best of the plans suggested. It will provide for Subordinate Judges the desired experience of criminal work and will at the same time enable District Judges to devote more attention, than is possible in some districts at present, to important civil cases.

G.O., dated 2nd February 1894, No. 67, Educational.

ABSTRACT.—Making certain modifications in the revised drafts of the Public Service and Special Test Notifications, and directing the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations to prepare fresh drafts for the approval of Government.

ORDER—dated 23rd February 1894, No. 136, Public.

The letter from the Registrar of the High Court read above contains the views of the Honorable the Judges on the questions referred for their consideration in G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869.

2. The High Court having intimated that it sees no objection to the adoption of the third-class vernacular test as that to be passed prior to appointment by District Munsifs, graduates in a vernacular being exempted, the revised rules contained in Appendix B to G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, which embody the modifications suggested in Home Department letter of the 10th March 1893, No. 12 C., and in Mr. Gibson's letter of the 19th May last, No. 240, can now issue. The President of the Board of Examiners will first be requested to carefully check the revised rules and to report at a very early date whether any corrections are called for. It appears necessary that the first rule and clauses (n) and (o) of rule 6 should make it clear that the third-class test is open to officers and persons not in the service of Government, other than Europeans and Eurasians, who are desirous of entering the Provincial Service. The President will also suggest the date to be fixed in rule 19.

3. As regards the draft rules for admission to the Provincial Civil Service, contained in Appendix A to the order of October last, the Honorable the Judges approve of the period of probation prescribed in rule VI. They point out that certain additions appear to be called for in rule V (a) and in rule VIII.

For the first two lines of rule V (a) the following will be substituted:—

“(a) that he is not over 25 years, except in the case of persons appointed to the Judicial branch otherwise than by competition,” and in rule VIII, the words “Vakil, Attorney” will be inserted after “Advocate” in line 2.

4. With reference to the question of the training of Sub-Judges in criminal work in order to fit them for appointment as District and Sessions Judge, the High Court is of opinion that the best plan will be to appoint these officers Assistant Sessions Judges under section 9 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the trial of such sessions cases as may be referred to them under the last clause of section 193 of the code. The Government is in favour of this proposal and considers it preferable to that contained in paragraph 8 of Mr. Lyall's letter of the 27th May 1892, No. 1535, viz., that Sub-Judges who give promise of becoming efficient District and Sessions Judges should be transferred temporarily to the executive line and employed upon ordinary criminal work as Deputy Collectors and Magistrates. The necessary action will be taken in the Judicial Department.

5. Sub-Judges and District Munsifs are at present required to pass the following tests before appointment:—

- | | |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| (1) Criminal Higher. | (3) Précis Higher. |
| (2) Translation Lower. | |

As regards the first of these tests, it is observed that under rules III and IV of the draft Provincial Service rules, the appointment of Sub-Judges will be restricted to Barristers, Advocates, High Court Vakils and District Munsifs, and that District Munsifs in their turn will be selected from Advocates, Vakils, and Attorneys of the High Court, Bachelors of Laws and First-grade Pleaders. Under rule VIII, no lawyer will be appointed as such unless he has been practising his profession in India for at least three years. From Mr. Foster's letter of the 15th July last, No. 1929, it would appear that the “Criminal Higher” is not now viewed as a test necessary to be passed by Sub-Judges and District Munsifs, and under the restrictions laid down in rules III and IV as to the classes to which these appointments will in future be open, there seems to be no longer any necessity for bringing District Munsifs and Sub-Judges under that test. The Honorable the Judges of the High Court will be requested to favour Government with their opinion on this point at an early date.

6. In paragraph 3 (4) of G.O., dated 2nd February 1894, No. 67, Educational, it has been decided to remove Deputy Collectors from the list of appointments to which the Translation Test Lower is applicable. Rule XIII in Appendix A to G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, will be amended accordingly. As the third vernacular class test will in future be required to be passed, prior to appointment, by all officers of the Provincial Civil Service who have not graduated in a vernacular, the necessity for retaining the Translation Lower in the cases of Sub-Judges and District Munsifs no longer exists.

7. As regards the Précis Higher, the Honorable the Judges will be requested to state whether they consider that the test should continue to apply to the appointments of Sub-Judge and District Munsif.

8. In accordance with G.O., dated 20th November 1893, No. 848, Educational, the note to rule XIII (i) (4) will be omitted.

9. The note to rule I also requires revision by the substitution of “14” for “11” in the last line but one.

10. The entry “(1) Revenue Higher, including Account Code” in Rule XIII will, with reference to paragraph 3 (5) of G.O., dated 2nd February 1894, No. 67, Educational, be altered to “(1) Revenue Higher, Account Test Higher.” The Revenue Department will be requested to intimate whether any further alterations are required in rule XIII in view of the decisions arrived at in the order last mentioned.

Order—dated February 1894, No. 869, Public.

The letter from the Registrar of the High Court read above contains the views of the Honorable the Judges on the question referred for their consideration in G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869.

2. The Honorable the Judges have estimated that they see no objection to the adoption of the third-class vernacular test that to be passed prior to appointment by District Munsifs, graduates in a vernacular language being exempted, the revised rules contained in Appendix B to G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, which Department letter of the 10th March 1894, No. 12 C., and in Mr. Gibson's letter of the 19th May last, No. 240, can be issued. The President of the Board of Examiners will first be requested to check the revised rules and to report at a very early date whether any corrections are called for. It appears necessary that the first rule and clauses (a) and (c) of rule 19 should make it clear that the third-class test is open to officers and persons in the service of Government, other than Europeans and Eurasians who are desirous of entering the Provincial Service. The President will also suggest the date to be fixed in rule 19.

3. As regards the draft rules for admission to the Provincial Civil Service, contained in Appendix A to the order of 10th March last, the Honorable the Judges approve of the period of probation prescribed in rule VI. They point out that certain additions appear to be called for in rule (a) and in rule VIII.

For the first two lines of rule V (a) the following will be substituted :—
“(a) that he is not over 25 years of age, and that he is not a member of any branch otherwise than by common law.”
and in rule VIII, the words “Vakil, Advocate” will be inserted after “Advocate” in line 2.

4. With reference to the question of the training of Sub-Judges in criminal work in order to fit them for appointment as District and Sessions Judges, the High Court is of opinion that the best plan will be to appoint these officers Assistant Sessions Judges under section 9 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the trial of such sessions cases as may be referred to them under the last clause of section 193 of the code. The Government is in favour of this proposal as paragraph 8 of Mr. Lyall's letter of the 27th May 1892, No. 1535, viz., that Sub-Judges who give promise of becoming efficient District and Sessions Judges should be transferred temporarily to the executive line and employed upon ordinary criminal work as Deputy Collectors and Magistrates. The necessary action will be taken in the Judicial Department.

5. Under the Special Regulations, Sub-Judges and District Munsifs are required to pass the following tests before appointment :—
(1) Criminal Higher. (2) Criminal Lower.
(3) Præcis Higher.

As regards the first of these tests, it is observed that under rules III and IV of the draft Provincial Service rules, the appointment of Sub-Judges will be restricted to Barristers, Advocates, High Court Judges and District Munsifs, and that District Munsifs in their turn will be selected from Advocates, Vakils, and Attorneys of the High Court, Bachelors of Laws and Magistrate Pleaders. Under rule VIII, no lawyer will be appointed as such unless he has been practising his profession in India for at least three years. From Mr. Foster's letter of the 15th July last, No. 1929, it would appear that the “Criminal Higher” is not now viewed as a test necessary to be passed by Sub-Judges and District Munsifs, and under the restrictions laid down in rules III & IV as to the classes to which these appointments will in future be open, there shall be no longer any necessity for bringing District Munsifs and Sub-Judges under a Criminal Higher Test. The Honorable the Judges of the High Court will be requested to favour Government with their opinion on this point at an early date.

6. In paragraph 3 (4) of G.O., dated 2nd February 1894, No. 67, Educational, it has been decided to remove Deputy Collectors from the list of appointments to which the Translation Test Lower is applicable. Rule XIII in Appendix A to G.O., dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, will be amended accordingly. As the third vernacular class test will in future be required to be passed, prior to appointment, by all officers of the Provincial Civil Service who have not graduated in a vernacular, the necessity for retaining the Translation Lower in the cases of Sub-Judges and District Munsifs no longer exists.

Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. dated 26th October 1893, No. 869, Public,
I am directed to state that the Honorable the Chief Justice and Judges see no objection to the adoption of the third class

District Munsifs, subject to the limitation mentioned in the fourth paragraph of the order.
They approve of Rule II in Appendix A, making all appointments to the Provincial

FOR ORDERS.

On p. 410 of the file, there is an apparent misprint which I have noted. MD

C. No. 3451 contains the reply of the High Court to G.O. d/ 23-10-38, No. 889
[page 408 of the book file].

2. The first point on which the Hon. the Judges were requested to report was the adoption of the third class vernacular test [vide rule 8 on page 417 of the book file] as that to be passed prior to appointment by Lt. Munsifs, graduates in a vernacular being exempted. The High Court agrees to this suggestion.

3. The Govt. of India having, in Hoblett. letter d/ 10-8-38, No. 12.C [p.
404 of the book file] approved, subject certain modifications, the proposed rules for the examination of the vern-ulars of European and European officer forwarded with this Govt's letter of 24-8-38, No. 564/5, and the alteration made by the Govt. of India having been settled out in the notification dated Appendix B to G.O. d/ 23-10-38,

Sub to 136-23-234

page 416 of the book file, it is submitted that the revised rules may, after check by the President of the Board of Examiners, be issued. They have been held over in connection with the question of prescribing the third class test as that to be passed prior to admission to the Provincial Service. Now that Govt. has decided to adopt this test and the High Court has agreed as regards District Munsifs, there seems to be nothing to prevent the issue of the rules. In para. 6 of its letter on page 405 of the book file the Govt. of India requested that copy of the rules as finally revised might be forwarded for its information. This will be done under cover of a letter intimating that the modifications suggested by the Government of India have been carried out and that this Govt. has decided on the third class test as that to be passed by officers of the Provincial Service prior to appointment, graduates in a vernacular being exempted.

As regards rule VI of those in Appendix A to G.O.d/36-10-93, No. 869 of 410 et seq. of file, the Hon. the Judges approve of the period of probation prescribed in the case of appointments to the Provincial Service.

Service They suggest the insertion of the words "Vakils, Attorneys" after "Advocates" in rule V (a) of "Vakil, Attorney" after "Advocate" in rule VIII. These rules follow conditions I & IV in India's letter on pages 259 & 260 of the book file, but the additions suggested by the High Court appear to be necessary.

In rule V(a), instead of enumerating the classes, it would perhaps be better to say

"(a) that he is not over 35 years, except in the case of persons appointed to the Judicial branch....."

5. With reference to the training of sub-Judges in criminal work in order to fit them for appointment as District and Sessions Judge [please see para. 5 of the G.O. on page 409 of the book file], the High Court considers that the best plan will be to appoint them Assistant Sessions Judges under section 9 of the Criminal Procedure Code. If this proposal is carried out the necessity for Sub-Judges & District Munsifs passing a Revenue Test will not arise.

Under the Special Test rules as they now stand [please see pages 34 et seq of the pamphlet in the file], Sub-Judges & District Munsifs are required

It seems to me that the best plan of training promising sub judges in civil work, in view of their ultimate appointment to be District Sessions judges, is that proposed by the H.C. - The plan proposed of the J. of P. referred below - that such officers should be transferred to the civil line & employed in ordinary civil work as a judge of the civil court, in which case they would have the advantage of becoming acquainted with some of the details of revenue business, would in practice be highly inconvenient here, however

As regards the first of these tests, Nos. L. & First Grade Pleaders. Under rule VIII no lawyer can be appointed as such unless he has been practising his profession in India for at least three years. It will be seen from the letter from the Registrar of the High Court on pages 406 & 407 of the book file that the "Criminal Higher" is not now treated as a test necessary to be passed by Dt. Munsifs and Sub-Judges, and under the restrictions laid down in Nos. III & IV of the draft Provincial Service rules as to the classes to which these appointments will in future be open, there seems to be no longer any necessity for bringing District.

District Munsifs & Sub-Judges under the Criminal Higher.

As the third class vernacular test will in future be required to be passed prior to appointment, by all Provincial Service officers who are not graduates, the necessity for retaining the "Translation Lower" (a simpler test) in the cases of Sub-Judges, District Munsifs & Deputy Collectors no longer exists.

With reference to the "Precis Higher" it will be seen from Mr. Foster's letter on pages 406 & 407 of the book file that this test is not now required of candidates for the appointment of Dt. Munsif and Sub-Judge.

7. If it is decided to adopt the High Court's proposal regarding the appointment of Sub-Judges as Assistant Sessions Judges the Judicial Deptt. will be requested to take the necessary action.

The Hon. Mr. Niaz has already noticed this point as far as it regards Deputy Collectors. As regards Sub-Judges & Dt. Munsifs it would perhaps be better to take the opinion of the High Court before making any change in the Special Test Rules. I don't think any further action is the H.C. necessary. It has already agreed to the 3rd cl. Vern. test as a condition precedent to appointment. Repetition includes the law.

The question of continuing to apply the "Precis Writing Test" to Sub-Judges & Dt. Munsifs is under consideration in the Educ. Deptt. in connection with the revised Special Test list. As we have decided, I think, that it should continue to apply but the High Court can be asked for its opinion on the point in the Educ. G.O. on the said list.
