I know nothing about this matter. I believe however that Mr. Nisbet gave satisfaction before, so that her re-appointment would seem as good an arrangement as can be made.

23/12/93

I believe we are very fortunate in being able to get Mr. Nisbet back again. Her marriage & consequent resignation were a great blow to the General Hospital.

Mr. Nisbet has been working up a Nurses'
Training School - and I think some steps should be taken to affiliate it to the General Hospital, & that Govt. should support it, but the S.G. should be asked to report on the matter first.

SIR,

With reference to G. O. No. 9070 dated the 10th November/93, I have the honor to submit a list of the candidates who have applied for the appointment of Matron Superintendent General Hospital Madras with the remarks of the Senior Medical Officer entered against each name.

2/ It will be seen from the list that Mrs. Visber the late Matron Superintendent is also an applicant. During the 5 years she was connected with the Hospital she conducted her duties most satisfactorily, she has had considerable experience of the working of the institution and I strongly recommend that she be again appointed Matron Superintendent.

LETTER—to

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

With reference to your Lordship's Public despatch, No. 18, of the 14th December last, we have the honour to report, for your Lordship's information, that we have appointed Mrs. Nisbet, a widow, to succeed Miss Hammans as Matron Superintendent of the General Hospital, Madras.

2. Mrs. Nisbet (née Scott) held the appointment for five years prior to her marriage which took place in 1892 and which rendered her ineligible for the post: during that period she gave every satisfaction and showed herself particularly fitted for the duties of Matron Superintendent.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,

To the Surgeon-General.

Letter—to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated Fort St.
George, 14th November 1893, No. 9.

With reference to your Lordship's Public despatch, No. 9, of the 20th October 1892, we have the honour to intimate that Miss Hammans has tendered her resignation with effect from the 28th February next or earlier date of relief in that month.
This we have accepted.

2. Acting on the precedent of your Lordship's predecessor's telegram of the 29th April 1892, we have authorised our Surgeon-General to advertise for a suitable person to fill the vacancy. We shall be glad to know whether, in the event of a fitting candidate being found, we may fill up the appointment subject to your Lordship's confirmation.

READ—also the following papers:—

From Surgeon-Major-General W. F. DEFABECK, M.D., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 21st December 1893, No. 673.
