

Marras Presidency
Bellary 22^d October 1893.

To
C. J. MacCarthy Esquire Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor

Respectable Sir,

10 With due respect and humble submission, I have the honor to send the accompanying copy of letters for your kind recollection - you had the goodness to send these papers to the Chief Secretary to Government in the month of June 1892.

Understanding, of course, the circumstances, the Government, having been pleased to register my son-in-law Subajee Rao's name for employment in the Provincial Service. Besides his Name had been previously registered in the Statutory Civil Service. His legal experience in business matters, as well as good family connection is well supported by Mr. J. D.

Goldsmith and late Bishop Judge.

Although I regret very much for his having been placed in the most unfortunate position, without providing him any compensation.

I must, however, rest content, and it seems almost certain that either his nomination is rather disregarded, or the time has not come to produce very good result.

Under all the circumstances, hopes were held for a long time since. I therefore respectfully beg that you will graciously be pleased to lay this before His Excellency the

STRATTON

December, 30th 1885.

DEAR SIR,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, of the 23rd of November and I much regret to learn of the loss you have suffered by the premature removal of your son who was usefully employed in Public Service.

I shall have much pleasure in forwarding your letter to the VICEROY, and in calling His Excellency's attention to your request on behalf of your second son—

It is, however, impossible for me to say, whether LORD DUFFERIN will have an opportunity of offering employment in the Public Service to him or to your son-in-law; for this must depend upon circumstances and upon the claims of others.

I am yours faithfully,

(Sd.) NORTHBROOK.

20th February 1886.

DEAR SIR,

In reply to your letter of the 5th Instant which has just reached me I have to inform you that the VICEROY has no intention of visiting Hyderabad for the present.

Your letter was duly forwarded by LORD NORTH-BROOK to the VICEROY, and I have communicated your requests to Mr. Cordery for his favorable consideration. As far as I am aware the VICEROY has at present no appointment in his gift for which the services of your son or son-in-law could be made available. For the statutory Civil Service the appointment practically with the local government, and the VICEROY confirms the candidates proposed.

Yours faithfully,
