St. Thomas,
Jan 1894.

With reference to your telephonic message which has been sent to me here as our office is closed today, I beg to say that Miss Church of the Medical Missionary Association applies to be examined by the test prescribed for Medical Officers (vernacular competency)

I informed her that her application should have been sent in through Government a month ago but as there are other candidates coming up on Wednesday, we can have the lady examined if sanction be accorded. —

Miss Church is the only private candidate who has applied for this test but there seems no objection to her admission.

It is a viva-voce test for Medical officers in Civil Employ.

I have already told Miss Church the fee she must pay if she is admitted.

Yours faithfully

Clark

iners.

Sir

I sent in my application some time ago for admission to the "Medical Collegial" examination, ^{addressed} to the Government Tamil Examiner but received no acknowledgment of my letter possibly owing to the death of the above official within a day or two of my posting it.

I sent in a second application on the 2^d of this month addressed to the Secretary to the Board of Examiners.
