No. 154.

To His Excellency the Most Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS,

I FORWARD herewith a copy of an address of the House of Commons for a return of petitions addressed to the Secretary of State or to the Viceroy which the various Indian Administrators have, in the exercise of the discretion reserved to them by the petition rules, declined to forward.

2. I request that Your Excellency will cause a return in accordance with the address to be prepared and forwarded to me to be laid on the table of the House of Commons.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD MARQUIS,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

KIMBERLEY.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

Tuesday, 12th December 1893.

Resolved—That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, that She will be graciously pleased to give directions that there be laid before this House, a Return of the total number and the number for each year of Petitions addressed to the Secretary of State for India in Council or to His Excellency the Viceroy of India in Council, which the Viceroy in Council or other Indian Administrations have, in the exercise of the discretion provided for in the Petition Rules, or otherwise, for any other reason refused to forward during the five years ending on the 31st day of August 1893, distinguishing each administration and the causes of such refusals respectively, distinguishing the Petitioners who were natives of India from those who were Eurasians and Europeans, and giving the salaries or pensions of the Petitioners where they can be ascertained.

Ordered—That the said Address be presented to Her Majesty by such Members of this House as are of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

Memorial why withheld (quoting rule)

Remarks

The Government of India having already decided that pensions in cases precisely similar to that of the petitioner were inadmissible, his petition was withheld under Sect. III, Rule 3 (3) of the Memorial rules B. which is as follows:— "Local Governments are vested with discretionary power to withhold petitions addressed to the Government of India in the following cases:—

* * * * *
When a previous petition has been disposed of by the Secretary of State or the Governor General in Council, and the petition discloses no new facts or circumstances which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case."

A previous petition on this subject was laid before the Government of India and rejected. This petition was accordingly withheld under the rule quoted against item no 1 in this statement.
