CHIEF SECRETARY
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

No. 198.

From

D^r E. Hultsch,
Government Epigraphist,

To

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Government will be so good as to permit me to submit my Annual Report for 1893-94 on the 1st August instead of the 1st July. The reason for this request is that I am anxious to utilise the whole of the month of June for disposing of and returning the following proof-sheets which would otherwise be delayed for a full month:-

I. The page proof of Epigraphia Indica, Vol. III., Part III., which was received from the Calcutta Press a few days ago.

II. The page proof of Part IV. of the same volume, which I expect in a few days.

III. The final proofs of sheets 63-75 of South Indian Inscriptions, Vol. II.
