Communicating telegram from the Govt of India req. the appt. of Surgeon Col. Sibthorpe as Surgeon Genl. with the Govt of Madras.

H.M.

Order 14 June 1894. 14 June
No. 489.

bound: with a spare
copy of Mily. dept. letter
No. 284.G. of 31.3.94, to Surgeon Major General
Sibthorpe.

Note.

Home Dept. sanction? the appt. without reference to the Mily. dept. comm. re reorganisation (vide ltr. in 478 8.1.94). Orders are requested whether this Mily.
dept. telegram may now be accepted without previous reference to Home?

J.B. Surg. Major Genl. Sibthorpe must have known that the 8/6 reorganisation of the Med.
Dept. was necessary consequence of the abolition of the Presidential Army system which has been decided on - the fact, everyone has known this for a long time.
It must have been a mere slip on the part of the Home Dept. not to mention the condition now imposed - should accept the position as laid by the Mily. Dept.

Circ. to H.M. in favour.

12/6/94

I think we must accept the situation. It has been very carefully carried out 14 June
