Surgeon. Capt. Simpson's joining time will, under the provisions of article 198 of the C. S. R., be extended from the 4th to the 28th October 1893.

2. The Govt. does not consider the Surgeon. Genl's explanation of the circumstances under which Surgeon Capt. Simpson was detained on joining time for as long a period satisfactory. Major-General de Fabeck should have taken orders regarding the posting of Surgⁿ Capt. Simpson before the relief of the latter at the General Hospital, and arrangements and should not have deferred action in the matter whilst Capt. Simpson was making up his mind as regards taking leave.

To
THE Honble the Chief Secy to Govt
Public Department
Madras,

SIR,

With reference to your memorandum N^o 2206 dated the 9th December 1893, I have the honor to state that Surgeon Captain D. Simpson was relieved of his ap^t appointment as 2^d Surgeon General Hospital Madras on the 4th October 1893, by the permanent incumbent. He at first wished to apply for furlough and subsequently for privilege but having again changed his mind was recommended to His Excellency the Governor to act for Surgeon Captain G.C.H. in Office. His Excellency's sanction to these proposals was only received by me on the 24th October 1893 while on a tour of inspection in the South Canara District and arrangements were made for the relief

Memo

It is understood that on the 4th October 1893 Surgeon Major C. M. Thompson was performing the double duties of Surgeon A^d District Madras & of Secretary to the Surgeon Genl. It is not understood clear why he was relieved on that date by Surgeon Capt. Hall if Surgeon Capt. Simpson was available to take the place of Surgeon Capt. Hall. The S.G. is requested to report on this point & also to forward a full account of the circumstances which rendered it necessary for Surgeon Capt. Simpson to be detained on joining time for 25 days.

C. The reply to this all memo should be forwarded to the Asst. Genl.
