FROM

Secretary to the Government of India.*

TO

(Public.)

SIR,

*To the address of the Dept.
of Rev. and Agri.*

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 119, dated the 20th February last, enquiring whether, in view to curtailing the unnecessary length of official correspondence, as desired by the Secretary of State, the Government of India would approve of a rule laying down that no second appeal should lie to the Government in the case of an officer in the Revenue Department drawing less than Rs 50/- a month, or to the Secy of Revenue in the case of an officer drawing less than Rs 25/- a month. This rule (it is said) could be varied to suit the circumstances of other Departments; every public servant would, however, be allowed the right of appeal once to one officer superior to the officer by whom an order prejudicial affecting him had been passed.

2. In reply I am to say that the Governor-General in Council does not desire to move in the matter at present.

The question will, however, not lost sight of and will be duly considered at a fitter opportunity.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most obedient Servant.
