GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., dated 17th February 1894, No. 176, Pension.

READ—also the following paper :—

G.O., dated 20th April 1894, No. 268, Revenue.

READ—again G.O., dated 24th January 1894, No. 65, Revenue.

ABSTRACT.—Declaring that all overpayments should in future be recoverable in the first instance from the Government servants who have received the same, that in cases in which the recovery cannot be so made the disbursing officers, unless they can satisfactorily explain the overpayments, will be required to make good the loss, and that no recoveries need be made in respect of allowances improperly drawn by Government servants by reason of errors as to grant of leave, &c., if such overpayments are not discovered within two years from the date of last overpayment.

READ—also the following letter from T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th March 1894, No. 742 :—

In G.O., No. 65, dated the 24th of January 1894, it is ruled that no recoveries need be made in respect of allowances improperly drawn by Government servants by reason of errors as to the grant of leave and the like, if such overpayments are not discovered within two years from date of last overpayment.

As this would amount to allowances over and above what are admissible under the Civil Service Regulations being allowed to pass without question, and as the rules do not provide for recoveries being waived in such cases, I have the honour, respectfully, to request that the Madras Government may be pleased to communicate its order to the Government of India.

Order—dated 20th April 1894, No. 268, Revenue.

Miscellaneous.

On reconsideration, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to withdraw the ruling contained in the concluding sentence of paragraph 1 of G.O., dated 24th January 1894, No. 65, and to restore the rule previously observed, viz., that allowances improperly drawn by Government servants, by reason of errors as to the grant of leave and the like, will be recoverable from them without reference to any period of limitation.
