Mr. Stuart drew Rs 400 p^r m^o. for the four months [C.S. of 20.7.93 No.
680] and this retrenchment seems rather hard.

It is understood that it was decided at Council yesterday that Mr. Stuart's appl. for one month to Bellaray might stand that there is no necessity to inform India of the appl.

My Lord,

I have considered your Excellency's letter, no. 61 (Finance) dated the 14th March 1894, recommending the extension of six months and a further of Rs 11,000/- should be sanctioned for the work of republishing the District Manuals of the Madras Presidency.

2. I regret that the work not have been finished within the of time and cost first sanctioned. delay appears to have been partly to the Editor's (Mr. Smart's) employment on other duty for four months during which time he gave little attention to the manuals. If he had allowance for time
