I have the honor to inform you that Sabapathi Pillai one of the Dharmakartas of the Brakhadiswara Swami Temple at Gangaikondam sholapuram states that the Dharmakartas are prepared to repair the Gopuram in question at the Devasthanam expense and that it is impossible for them to demolish the upper part of the gopuram, being in a dangerous state, and requests therefore that it be demolished by Govt. He further states that it will take two years for them to repair the building in question after the upper part of the gopuram is removed. The temple Committee members & the Dharmakartas are not good terms; I think that repairs are not likely to be carried on by them
