ENCLOSURES. 3.

Subject.

Reporting that Mrs. De Meder, Matron, H. M. Prison, at Madras, and her son, H.
De Meder, Chief Warder of the Coimbatore Central Jail, were granted a personal discharge under the Insolvent Act, and recommending, for reasons stated within, their retention in the Public

Order 19 July 1894. N. 525.

The Inspector Genl's recommendation that Mrs De Meder and her son be retained in the service is approved.

The Insp Genl of Prisons

In 1888 Mrs De Meder was appointed Matron of the Penitentiary, and her son, whose age is 25, was enlisted as a European Warder in 1891. In 1892, a son-in-law of hers, who was Tailor of the Vizagapatnam District Tail, was dismissed by me for misconduct. He shortly after died, and his widow and five children thus came on Mrs De Meder for support. Another son-in-law had previously died, leaving a widow and three children. In consequence of these misfortunes, Mrs De Meder's affairs became embarrassed. She borrowed money from Sawcars at exorbitant interest, her son - H. De Meder - becoming joint security for the loans. In the end the money lenders obtained decrees against her, and she and her son were obliged to seek the protection of the Insolvent Court. I enclose the Insolvents' petition, and Schedule of Debts, and a copy of the Discharge Order, for perusal and favour of return.

3. The son, H. De Meder's liabilities arose through his becoming joint security with his Mother for her loans. He is an efficient Officer. Mrs De Meder's embarrassment is due to family mismisfortunes, and she is a respectable and trustworthy woman. In neither case did it appear necessary to direct the suspension of the Insolvents, though H. De Meder has been removed from Madras to Calcutta, and Mrs De Meder took leave. I beg now to recommend that, as they have obtained a discharge, they may be retained in the Public Service.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
