Simla, the 21 June 1894.

SIR,

A complaint having been presented by a dismissed servant of Government against the notification in an official Gazette of the fact of his dismissal and the reason for it, I am directed to enquire what rule is observed in with regard to giving to Government officers necessary information as to dismissals of public servants. I am to request that it may be stated whether any difference is made between cases where re-employment is prohibited and where it is not, and also whether, in any case of dismissal in which it is decided to issue a public notification, the cause which led to the dismissal is specified. Ordinarily this would not seem to be necessary for the purpose designed, and care must be taken that a man is not practically excluded by such a notification from respectable private employment without sufficient cause.

Madras

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. Thornton

Offg. Depy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 11 Public/1086 of the 21st. June I am directed to inform you that in this Presidency, whenever it is desired to intimate to heads of offices the fact of a person having been dismissed under circumstances which debar him from re-entertainment in the public service, a Notification in the Fort. St. George Gazette is the medium adopted. Such a Notification cannot be issued except by Government and is seldom resorted to unless a conviction in a Court of Justice has been secured. The charge or charges are invariably mentioned in it.

3. In this connection I am to invite attention to standing order of the Madras Board of Revenue No. 366 (old edition) which lays down a clear distinction between cases in which the reemployment of a dismissed public servant is prohibited and in which there is no such prohibition. To the former must be added the case of those whose services are dispensed with on account of insolvency. Such cases are, however, rare.

I have &c.
