READ—the following papers :—

From J. STURROCK, Esq., President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 28th June 1894, No. 220.

It has been brought to my notice that young Civilians experience considerable difficulty in finding out definitely what Acts and books should be studied for the Revenue and Criminal Law branches of the Standard examinations, and it has been suggested that more detailed instructions should be issued, somewhat in the same way as has been done for the examination in Revenue Settlement.

2. I have therefore drawn up lists of the Acts and books which I consider it necessary for an Assistant to read in order to ensure that all the more important branches of work come within his course of study, and have the honour to submit them for the approval of Government in view to their issue for the guidance of candidates for the examinations in question.

From the Revenue Department, dated 10th July 1894, No.

From the President, Board of Examiners, dated 30th July 1894, No. 282.
