High Court of Judicature
Madras, 27th July 1874

From

H. W. Foster Esquire,

Registrar of the High Court of Judicature

Appellate Side, Madras.

The Honorable J. F. Price,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Fort St. George.

Honorable Sir,

With reference to paragraph 1 of your letter dated 5th April last, No 823. Judicial, I am directed to inform you that the supply of clothing at the expense of the State is equally necessary in case of all the peons. There is no special set of peons whose duties are confined to waiting in the office or carrying papers to the Judges in circulation, but all are appointed by rotation to all classes of work and even those whose immediate duties lie in the office must frequently appear in public. It is therefore desirable that all the peons alike should be neatly and becomingly attired and it is impossible to require this class of low paid servants to make special expenditure on such an account out of their narrow means. The High Court trusts therefore that the present system of supplying all peons with uniform, once in two years may be maintained unaltered.

2. From the list already furnished, menial servants on the Original & were omitted by inadvertence and the number shown in that list should accordingly be increased by the addition of 4 gollahs, 12 peons and 8 lascars.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. Miller

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes. (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 289, Public.)

ORDER

H.M.

For orders with reference to previous notes. The numbers who now receive clothing are:

Clubbers	14.
Peon	1.
Duffadars	2.
Gollals	4.
Lascars	8.
Peons	63.
	92

It is not apparent why Gollals & Lascars at any rate should have uniforms.

I agree. I suppose we must allow them the rest.

Order of 18th August 1894, no. 602.

The Govt. considers that Gollals and Lascars should not be supplied with uniforms, but will not object to the remaining eighty menials be-clothed as at present.
