MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 7th August 1894.

It is requested that the above heading, with number and date of this communication, may be quoted in any subsequent correspondence on this subject.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PUNJAB,

Home (Military) Department.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 336-S, dated the 9th July 1894, requesting to be furnished with a list of any questions as to efficiency, etc., which it may be customary to put (confidentially or otherwise) to Officers Commanding British and Native regiments in the case of officers serving under their command applying for the post of Adjutant to a volunteer corps.

2. In reply I am to state, for the information of the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, that there is no prescribed set of questions which are put to Commanding Officers of regiments in regard to the efficiency, etc., of officers under them who apply for volunteer adjutancies. The rules under which such appointments are made are laid down in paragraphs 132-A, 132-B, 132-C, and 132-D of Army Regulations, India, Volume IX. In addition to these rules, the decision in Military Department letter No. 1660-B, dated the 13th June 1894, requires that Local Governments should in future, on the abolition of the present presidential army system, appoint Adjutants to volunteer corps in communication with the Lieutenants-General Commanding the Forces, and it is presumed that the latter will satisfy themselves that the candidates for appointment are in every respect qualified.

3. I am to add that, in accordance with the decision conveyed in Resolution of the Government of India (Military Department), No. 3424-B, dated the 20th October 1892, the commandant of a volunteer corps to which an Adjutant has to be appointed should be consulted before the appointment is made, and that His Excellency the Viceroy, in nominating officers for these posts, has always given great weight to the recommendation of the Commanding Officer of the corps to which an Adjutant is to be appointed.

I am, &c.,

(Sd.) P. J. MAITLAND,

Depy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
