11TH AUGUST 1894, No. 991, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Resolution from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Pensions and Gratuities), dated Simla, the 5th July 1894, No. 3369-P.

Read—

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 95 (Financial), dated 17th May 1894.

Resolution—

In the Despatch read above, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has brought to notice the delay that sometimes occurs in the disposal of claims to pensions, and has directed that instructions should be issued for the prompt settlement of all such claims. His Excellency the Governor-General in Council desires to invite attention to the provisions of article 1012 of the Civil Service Regulations, and requests that all officers concerned will adopt special measures for the speedy disposal of all applications for pension.

Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to the Departments of the Government of India, to all Local Governments and Administrations, to the Comptroller and Auditor-General, to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers, and to Heads of Departments subordinate to this Department, for information.

(Signed) R. A. GAMBLE,
Offg. Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ORDER—dated 11th August 1894, No. 991, Pension.

Communicated to all Heads of Departments for information and guidance.

2. Stringent orders have, from time to time, been issued by this Government directing all officers to deal as expeditiously as possible with claims for retiring allowances, and their special attention will now be drawn to the following orders, copies of which have already been communicated to all heads of departments :—

G.O., No. 717, dated 29th June 1888, Pension.

" " 659, " 9th " 1890, "
" " 1026, " 20th Sept. 1893, "
" " 2, " 9th Jan. 1894, "

3. Delay in the preparation of the formal pension application is usually caused by the applicant's service book not being maintained in the manner prescribed by the first of the above-quoted orders, and the rules then promulgated must be carefully attended to. In paragraph 4 of G.O., No. 2, dated 9th January last, it was observed that the quarterly returns of verification of service books had been discontinued under the impression that the work had been brought up to date in most offices. The Government desires to ascertain whether this is now the case, and directs all Heads of Departments to submit a return at the close of the current quarter ending with September 30th.

4. It will be observed that in paragraph 4 of G.O., dated 29th June 1888, No. 71 quoted above, it was declared that every head of an office would, in future, be responsible for any avoidable delay, but in spite of this warning pension papers are frequently submitted to Government many months after the applicant's retirement without satisfactory explanation. His Excellency the Governor in Council is now pleased to direct that all claims for pension shall hereafter be treated as urgent, and officers concerned are enjoined to use every endeavour to ensure the prompt settlement of such claims.
