With reference to

Mr Lusoria's No. 1375 of the 13th August I am directed to point out that the blank docket sheet therewith forwarded covered this dept. No. 441 of the 18th June last which was a printed letter and had a docket printed on it. In such cases it has not been usual
to repeat in manuscript on the extra cover the docket already printed on the cover itself.

Unless it is particularly desired that the

For L.A.

The G.O. of 1882 is submitted. It has been the practice of our dispatches to write the abstracts on the Home Sec. docket sheet in all cases where ~~the letter~~ the letter is sent in manuscript and to omit doing so when printed letters were forwarded. This has not been questioned till now. The L.A. Dept. has been using the docket sheet only when manuscript letters are sent and not
