SIR,

*In reply to C. M. Public, No. 1547, dated 2nd August 1894, I have the honor to inform you that Mr. R. Seshagiri Sastriar reported that he was unable to attend the examination held on the 16th July and following days in consequence of his being at Calcutta for the vacation and having been engaged there since the time in the settlement of some business relating to the division of his family property, which business would not be completed by the 16th July.

I think further inquiry sh^d be made before we take this unusual course. Members of the Board of Examiners are employed as such & I have never known an instance in which a member was found for not being present on any particular occasion. They have to do what they are told to do by the President, but nothing else. Was Seshagiri Sastri informed of the date of the recent examination & told to be present? He ought to have been under the 28th June 94 471. If he disobeyed that order knowing he ought to be present for doing so.

I submit that the income is not a valid one. Sheshaya Sastri has no illiberal salary and there are no vacancies for translators to Govt. excepting perhaps Gazette holders. If Sheshaya Sastri could arrange matters so as to enable him to perform when required the duties for which he is paid Rs 300 a month he should I submit be made to pay for those who do them in his stead. It is wrong improper that Govt. should pay a man for certain work & then leave to pay some one else for the same thing.

h. D.

11/5/84

There seems to be some misapprehension about this.
It is not the translator Sheshaya Sastri about whom the Pres. wrote, but Mr. Seshagiri Sastri a professor in the Presidency College, is a member of the Bd. of Examiners. Nevertheless, I agree that he did not - I think he should have been asked to attend the Bd. he should have been asked which his salary was not - He is a well known man (Rs 400) &
his services were required.

Mr. J. M. M.

I regret to say that the muddled & untrue my own and arose in their minds Dr. Oppelt was professor of Sanskrit at the Pres. College and Telugu Translator. Dr. M. succeeded him in the former and was assisted by several being also a Telugu Translator. He devoted a good deal of his time to a professor in the Presidency was preferred to him.
I for an idea who may have had succeeded Dr. Oppelt in both of the appls which had held out I did not verify it as I might have done.
The information required by the Hon. Mr.
Sore has been called for
