Muhammadan Pilgrim Agents.

Communicating to certain officers letter for report from the Government of India requesting that inquiries may be instituted for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of the allegation that — in this country appropriate a large portion of the money subscribed to defray the expenses of indigent pilgrims to the Hedjaz.

EXTRACT from a letter from the India Office to the Foreign Office, No. 724, dated the 30th May 1894.

Mr. Secretary Fowler proposes to send copy of the present correspondence to the Government of India in order that they may be aware of the views of the Constantinople Sanitary Council, and of the information contained in Sir P. Currie's letter concerning the action of pilgrim agents in Bombay.

EXTRACT from the report of the Superior Board of Health, dated the 10th April 1894.

Dr. Sabuzzi expresses the conviction that the restrictive measures imposed by some Governments in connection with the departure of pilgrims for Mecca have not for their object the prohibition of a religious custom, but really the protection of their subjects from dangers inherent in this pilgrimage. The British Government, in the interests of its Indian subjects, should adopt measures similar to these, for, at the time of the pilgrimage, Bombay, Calcutta and Madras become the centres of a veritable slave trade. In fact, says Dr. Sabuzzi, it is notorious that to-day the institution of pilgrim vessels, the absurd price demanded for the voyage, and above all the custom adopted by rich Muhammadans with a view to gain credit for the future life of despatching to the holy places a mass of paupers for the purpose of there performing hadjis, have completely altered the character of the pilgrimage; Calcutta, Madras and Bombay become centres for the export of human flesh, and, through the medium of brokers, many poor Indians are embarked for the hadj, of whom one-half and even fewer never returned to their country.

ORDER—dated 12th September 1894, No. 669, Public.

Communicated to all District Magistrates and the Commissioner of Police, Madras, for early report and remarks with reference to the last paragraph of the letter from the Government of India.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 29th August 1894, No. 217-7 Sanitary.

I am directed to forward an extract from a Despatch of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 66 (Revenue), dated the 31st May 1894, together with extracts from the papers marginally noted, relative to the transactions of certain Muhammadan pilgrim agents in this country.

Extract from Sir P. Currie's letter No. 34, dated the 1st May 1894.

Extract from a letter from the India Office to the Foreign Office, No. 724, dated the 30th May 1894.

Extract from the report of the Superior Board of Health, dated the 10th April 1894.

2. It has been reported to Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople that these agents are employed by wealthy Muhammadans, who subscribe large sums to defray the cost of the journeys of indigent pilgrims to the Hedjaz. Such pilgrims, it is said, do not, as a rule, undertake the pilgrimage of their own initiative, but are set in motion by the agents who appropriate a large portion of the money subscribed. The result complained of is that many pilgrims who proceed to the Hedjaz are left in a destitute condition on their arrival in Arabia.

3. I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, inquiries may be instituted for the purpose of ascertaining to what extent such practices prevail. Should the inquiries show that Dr. Dickson's allegations are correct the Government of India will be glad to be favoured with the views of the Government of Madras as to the measures to be adopted to remedy the evils complained of.

ENCLOSURES.

EXTRACT, paragraph 2, from Despatch of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 66 (Revenue), dated the 31st May 1894.

2. I should be glad to be informed of any action you may take after ascertaining the facts in regard to the transactions of pilgrim agents, on the proceedings of whom Sir P. Currie remarks.

EXTRACT, paragraphs 2 and 3, from Sir P. Currie's letter, No. 34, dated the 1st May 1894.

2. I am informed by Dr. Dickson that the indigent pilgrims do not, as a rule, undertake the pilgrimage of their own initiative, but that they are set in motion by agents employed by wealthy Muhammadans, who subscribe large sums of money to defray the cost of the journeys. It appears that the brokers to whom the money is entrusted appropriate a large portion of it, and that the pilgrims are in consequence left destitute on their arrival in Arabia and are unable to pay their sanitary fees and other expenses.

3. Dr. Dickson suggests that a remedy might be found for this state of things if an arrangement could be made by which the subscriptions should be received by authorised agents and applied by them for the benefit of the pilgrims.

He believes that if this were done the funds subscribed would in most cases be sufficient to defray the cost of the pilgrimages.

Referring to G. O. No. 669 dated the 12th September last regarding Mahammadan Pilgrim Agents, I have the honor to report that the practice therein referred to does not prevail in this District. The Mahammadan community in these parts is very small and no pilgrims have been sent to Mecca from any of the ports here for many years past. Even if there were any, they used to receive help direct from the well-to-do Mahammadans and the existence of any Agents to secure pilgrims to the Medjay is unheard of. Under the circumstances I have no remarks to offer on the subject.
