Sir,

*Thro' the President
Board of Examinations*

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of G. O. No. 632 dated 31st August 1892 appointing me a Member of the Board of Examiners.

2. I beg respectfully that I may be relieved of this honorable duty, not because I am unwilling to undertake it, but simply because I have literally no time. I am in a critical condition with my Report on Land & Agricultural Banks & the proofs are beginning to pour in from the printer: every forenoon is given up to work at the subject itself and every night after dinner to proof or some such mechanical work: I
