The Court has granted the man a free discharge in respect of all his liabilities and his schedule shows that a great portion of his liabilities were incurred before he entered Government Service. He appears also to have become liable for a portion of his debts by standing security for a younger brother.

Narasimha Iyengar was entertained in the Board's office on the 16th February 1891 and has worked satisfactorily.

Under these circumstances I am to say that the Board is of opinion that he may be reinstated.

Sir.

I am directed to forward for the — information and orders of Government, — copies of the Schedule, Balance sheet and Court's order in the matter of the insolvency of Mr. S. Narasimha Iyengar, a copyist of this office drawing pay of Rs. 17. 8. - per mensem.

I forward also a letter from Mr. S.
Narasimha Iyengar, dated 23rd December 1892, explaining the circumstances under which he was compelled to seek the benefit of the Insolvent Debtors Act. The copyist was

Most Honored Sir

I beg to submit the following facts to your consideration and request your honor will kindly grant my prayer.

See statement by Cannet. I was in the year 1880
as a contractor in the contract.

Between the years 1880 and 1890 I was as a superintendent and clerk in the local Land Engineering Department, in several Taluk's, Tanjore District, where my younger brother, one Gopalaswamy Iyengar was as a contractor. My brother often pledged my credit and raised loans for carrying on his contract work and I had to join in the execution of annual promissory notes. The business re-creditors filed suits - and have obtained decrees in same. In that way, as surety for my brother, my liabilities will be about Rs. 1300/- and I have no other source of income than my salary (Rs. 17-8-0) as clerk in this office which is hardly sufficient for the maintenance of myself and my family consisting of 6 souls. It is therefore impossible for me to satisfy these creditors with my present means and there is nothing in my prospects to raise any expectation of paying them. The creditors are likely to transfer the decrees to the Madras Small Causes Court and execute them. Much against my will, I am constrained to seek the benefit of the Act for the relief of

I therefore pray that permission may be granted to me to file my Schedule in the Tanjore District where the creditors reside, without prejudice to my being continued in service; and for this act of kindness, I shall ever pray for your honors long life and prosperity

I most humbly beg to remain
Sir,
your most obedient servant 1st of M. S. Narasimha Iyengar Clerk of the copying branch.

Has been granted a

but nothing said
about arrears of pay

35 B.
19/9 I have gone over the Schedule and find but little to show that this man's indebtedness arose from standing security for his brother for contracts. Some of the late contracts' transactions may have been the result of contracts for advances but there is nothing to show that they were. There are no signs of interruption the debt seems to be the result of want of sufficient means.

Not uncommon
cause of debt!

It is submitted that the man may be restored with a warning that if he has again become liable to the Government that he will be removed from the service. He probably will have to go he has received no allowances while under suspension. Suspending him seems to have been ^{an} unnecessary and harsh measure.
