 the lower officers (subordinates) as to go action to repair both the Halayana Mandap
 - the mud wall.

Showing the kindness towards me you may understand every thing going both my petition of the plan.

I beg to remain

Then I petitioned not to give the place to those who belongs to the place of Kalayana Mandapam.
The H^d Assistant Collector gave me endorsement as it belongs to the place of Kalayana Mandapam.

(3) Thinking that it was good to build the wall around that Kalayana Mandapam did it. Now the mud wall gradually got destroyed by rain. So the border to Kalayana Mandapam is in a bad condition.

(4) This Kalayana Mandapam is a very big one. It was built very peculiarly and costly. Every column of big stone, and every round head of grand picture worth at least 1000 (one thousand) rupees.
Both high honourable Governor and the Collector of Krishna already observed it when they came to Bezawada.

Sending the plan with this petition, we humbly beg your honour to bring both petition and the plan into your honour's notice as to produce the good result on my part about God's Kalayana Mandapam.

(5) So we humbly beg your high honour

CURRENT NO. 272

To
The right-honourable Governor in Council,

The humble petition of ^{of Uppalur} ~~the~~ ^{ma} ~~one~~

Bezawadah of ^{CHIEF SECRETARY} ~~Krishna District~~ 24 SEP-1894
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Most-honourable Sir,

I. My fore-fathers built the pagoda of God Mallikharjuna on the mountain of Bezawadah by the help of Nizam Government which treated them as ~~Dar~~ dayas who were well respected by that Government.

They began to build one Halayanam ~~ma~~ frame in order to place that god in it and the time of the festival once for a year, with 3 terraces of big stones, big Column of softened stones and stone Coffers together with round heads of grand ~~pin~~ but it was not continued for a long time and hence
