Please see § 1066 (a) of the C.B.R. -
Mr. Galton should have obtained the Secy. of State's sanction to his retirement. Others have applied to this Govt. for admission his annuity under § 1066 (b).

In the case in G.O. 414 10.6.90 Mr. Goodrich was on privilege leave in England when he asked for permission to retire.

Perhaps the best course will be to telegraph to the Secy. of State

My dear Mr. Macfarlane ...
Gibson was saying to me, after H.E. had left the Govt. office this afternoon, that he hoped that a few words of regret at losing his services might accompany the Gazette announcement of Gallton's retirement.
I agree, to pass on the question for H.E.'s approval.

It was, I suppose, as hardworking & devoted a servant as this Govt ever had & an excellent secretary, and deserves, I think, a valedictory order. He would appreciate it, too, all the more from the fact that, owing to his position at the end of a year of 27 men, following on a year of 28 men, he has all his service been more or less an underdog man.

Yours truly
H. W. Wills

Don't trouble to reply

My dear Colman

He the Govt. Secy. certainly

He must think why the idea of a had a very high opinion of Galton's ability as a Secy & of his unshakable devotion to duty.
