The Hon. Member has called for the remarks of the Public dept on the subject.

The Hon. Member's attention is invited to the linked file.

In accordance with clause 149, S.A.C. '90, 20 percent of mil. sub. are to form a war reserve to be ordinarily ^{employed} in the civil dept.

The civil dept is glad to have the services of these men and they are employed in important charges. Being a war reserve the Surgeon Genl feels justified in giving them appts. which should be held by ~~more~~ permanent men & not by men who are not likely to remain in them for any length of time. But the mil.

was no expense.
 in demands, the voices of their war (?)
 serve on any pretext and to the no small convenience of the civil dept. This seems unfair and there can be no doubt that the civil dept. is simply made a convenience of.

This is true but there is no help for it.

In the circumstances it wd. be preferable for the civil dept to work with none but its own men, but that would not suit India.

The fact is that India is loathe to increase est-
 : keep pace with increased demands - and the result is that their war reserve is utilised in times of peace.

It would be as well if this "war reserve" was abolished and if it was treated as a reserve to be employed in the civil dept and liable to be drawn upon for any exigencies of the service. India does the same sort of thing with Commission-Officers.
