GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From H. W. FOSTER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 26th September 1894, No. 2803.

I am directed to invite the attention of the Government to what appears to be an accidental omission from clause IV of the rules for admission to the Provincial Service, published at pages 614-620, Part I, of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 29th May 1894.

2. That clause correctly states that the latest rules prescribing qualifications for the office of district munsif are those published on page 260 of the Fort St. George Gazette, Part I, dated 14th April 1885, but, while purporting to quote the rules, omits to mention the classes of persons treated in the rules as "exceptions."

These exceptions, which are mentioned in my letter, dated 25th July 1893, No. 1929, comprise—

(i) persons who, before the 1st January 1885, completed the Special Tests at that time required to qualify for the office of district munsif;

(ii) persons already in the service of Government in the Judicial Department who may have passed the tests required under the old rules, dated 29th July 1869, to qualify for a munsifship at any of the Special Test Examinations held up to and including the year 1889;

and as these persons are still eligible for appointment as district munsif, it seems desirable that the Government notification should be amended.

ORDER—dated 11th October 1894, No. 757, Public.

The following addition will be made to Rule IV of those in the Appendix to G.O., dated 11th May 1894, Nos. 325-326 :—

Exceptions.

(a) Persons who, before the 1st January 1885, completed the Special Tests at that time required to qualify for the office of district munsif.

(b) Persons already in the service of Government in the Judicial Department who may have passed the tests required under the old rules, dated 29th July 1869, to qualify for a munsifship at any of the Special Test Examinations held up to and including the year 1889.

From

H. W. Foster Esquire,

Registrar of the High Court of Madras
Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable J. F. Price, C.S.I.,
Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort St. George.

Honorable Sir,

I am directed to invite the attention of the Government to what appears to be an accidental omission from Clause II of the Rules for admission to the Provincial Service published at pages 614-620, Part I, of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 29th May 1894.

2. That clause correctly states that the latest rules prescribing qualifications for the office of District Munsif are those published on page 260 of the Fort St. George Gazette, Part I, dated 14th April 1885, but while purporting to quote the rules, omits to mention the classes

persons treated in the rules as exceptions.

These exceptions which are mentioned in my letter dated 25th July 1893, No. 1829, comprise.

i. Persons who, before the 1st January 1885, completed the Special Tests at that time required to qualify for the Office of District Munsif.

ii. Persons already in the Service of Government in the Judicial Department who may have passed the tests required under the old rules dated 29th July 1869 to qualify for a Munsifship at any of the Special Test Examinations held up to and including the year 1889.

and as these persons are still eligible for appointment as District Munsif, it seems desirable that the Government Notification should be amended.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. S. S. S.

of the exceptional classes was apparently made under the impression that the exception would not operate as it had been intended that persons passing the classes

name would be appropriate.
