To the Chief Secretary
to the Government of Madras -

Dear Sir,

I am not writing demi-officially but entirely as my
on behalf, to be the favour
the Government of Madras, very kindly supplying

me with ~~the~~
a duplicate of
the photo: No 213, accompanying
their archaeological
report for ~~1974~~
1993/4.
It is of the deepest archaeological

interest, no. ~~of~~ an account of the
lotus like form
of the Wigam-yoni
repeasant in the top most ~~compartment~~ of the stall, but because of the two acolytes ~~represented~~ in the act of worshipping it.

Why the ~~photo~~ photo still in half hidden in the photo: by
the match of the hut on the left side -
as you look at the photo: &
it would be
very demobg
also to have a photo: taken

of a larger size, & with greater
definition; particularly as to the Gurda-
like figure
hovering over the lingam - how & its acolytes, after
the manner in which the hairs

Globe, represents Assur hovering
over the "Tree of Life" in the Babylonian &
Assyrian cylinders
But still as it stands the photo.
is of capital
interest & very

valuable. -5
was not seen
here in time for me to reproduce
it in the English Edition of the Count Goblet
& Alvelles Migrations of Symbols to be noticed early

with.
If I could be furnished with
any particulars
as to the state of this state I should be deeply
grateful.

I beg to remain
Yours truly
Geo. Bridgwood
