Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council, No. 83 (Emigration) dated 30th August 1894.

In continuation of my despatch No. 85 dated 20th August 1891, I forward for the information of Your Excellency in Council, copy of a letter received from the Foreign Office on the subject of compulsory military service in Reunion.

Letter from the Foreign Office, to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, dated 6th August 1894.

I am directed by the Earl of Kimberley to acquaint you, for the information of Mr. Secretary Fowler, that in a despatch which has just been received from Her Majesty's Consul at Reunion, reporting on the garrison and defences of the Island reference is made to the question of the immigration of Indians into that French colony.

Consul Bennett calls attention to the establishment of compulsory military service and points out that if Indian immigration should in future again be sanctioned, it would be advisable to stipulate for the freedom from military service in Reunion of children of Indians born in the Colony.

It appears that the French military officers in the island are not very confident as to the fitness of the native creole population for military service. Consul Bennett therefore thinks it would not be wise to put it into the power of the French authorities to raise a force of Indians in Reunion.
