Accountant General's Office

15th October 1894.

From

J. W. Rawlin's Esq.,

Accountant General,

to the Govt. of Madras.

To

The Senior Medical Officer

General Hospital.

Madras.

Sir

In reply to your letter no: 798 dated the 13th instant, I have the honor to state that in my letter no: 3927 dated the 23^d Decr 93 on the subject of the Hospital Accounts, I remarked that the late Head Steward was accountable for a deficiency of Rs 190.32 in the Cash balances. Upon his appeal against the liability which was referred to me by the Surgeon-General, I reported in my no: 1431 of the 25th May last that it was not unlikely he had made payments of 5 items referred to by him aggregating Rs 17.10.8 and omitted to charge for them in the Cash account and probably some deposits also, as alleged, were repaid by him prior to May 1891 and similarly omitted to be charged in

Explanation for the omission was not altogether satisfactory.

2. As Government in passing its order No: 469 dated 28th June 1894 on the Surgeon General's letter forwarding my last mentioned report was not satisfied that the Steward has been guilty of misappropriating public funds and imputed the unsatisfactory state of the Accounts more to his want of method and clear-headedness, I am not prepared to say that any deduction should be made from the Steward's Deposit.

Chambers.

No: 810 of 17: October 1894.

I have the honor to forward papers marked 1-7, regarding the Security money of the late Head Steward and to request that you will be good enough to obtain the orders of the Surgeon General as to where the stoppages should be made.

OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL is quite distinct from the Rs 190. 3-2, in no: $\frac{3128}{15.10.94}$ from the Accountant Genl.
In my opinion I should deduct the Rs 192/- before returning the Security money and interest.
