7. The question of M.R.Ry. Ramachandra Rao's promotion appears to stand as stated above. His arguments ~~are~~ regarding his remaining in the Statutory Service are beside the point, as the terms of his appointment were distinct - please see the extract marked on page 343 of the file book.

8. It may be remarked in this connection that though a Head Assistant in charge can now be temporarily held by a Provincial Service Officer, there seems to be no necessity, at present, for placing any Deputy Collector in such a charge. There are now 5 Assistants who have passed the Lower Standard available for Ag. Head Assistantships and it would not benefit a Deputy Collector pecuniarily were he given a Head Assistant's Division. Should there be any paucity of Indian Civilians later on in the year the Deputy Collectors might be utilized civilians of 1890 have been satisfied the total number of posts available for the Statutory and Provincial Services combined is 7.8 i.e. 8. Column 8 of the second table in A shows that 7 listed posts of Head Assistant and higher appointments are at present occupied. All the Indian Civilians who arrived in 1890 are provided with Ag. Head Assistantships and, as only 3 of the 4 listed posts of this class are at present occupied, a listed Head Assistant could be filled up temporarily by a Provincial Service Officer - i.e. a Deputy Collector could be placed in charge of a Head Assistant's division without infringing the claims of Indian Civilians. This was also the case when the notes in G.O. d/ 15-8-93, No. 645, were written but, as will be seen from the papers contained in that G.O., M.R.Ry Ramachandra Rao could obtain neither acting allowance nor charge allowance nor sub. pro tem promotion were he placed in charge of a Head Assistantship. It was on these grounds that it was decided last August that he should not be appointed to such a charge.

after those of the last of the Indian Civilians whose covenants bear dates previous to their confirmation [vide extract on page 255 of the book file].
As the posts held from time to time by Statutory Civilians are to be deducted from the listed posts [page 253 of the book file] and as there are only two listed Sub-Collectorates, M.R.Ry. Ramachandra Rao's chances of being ^{permanently} promoted to one are at present remote.

4. He cannot get a permanent listed Head Assistantship - i.e. a third class Deputy Collectorship (pay Rs. 500) - for it will be seen from the second table in A that 4 Head Assistantships (the total number listed) are at present permanently occupied.

5. As regards an acting Sub-Collectorate, it will be seen from the same table that both the listed posts are at present occupied. Mr. Rajagopala Chari, a Statutory, has not yet received promotion to an acting Sub-Collectorate and it seems unlikely that one of these appointments will be available for M.R.Ry. Ramachandra Rao for some time to come.

6. As regards an acting Head Assistant, it will be seen from column 5 of the first table in A that after the claims of civilians number of listed posts held permanently and acting by Members of the Statutory and Provincial Services. The ~~last~~ ^{latest} issue, brought down to 1st January 1894, is paper marked A.

3. As regards the claims of M.R.Ry. Ramachandra Rao to be appointed permanently to a listed post equivalent to a Sub-Collectorate - i. e. to a Deputy Collectorship 1st Class (pay Rs. 700) - it will be seen from the second table in A that the number of listed posts equivalent to and higher than a Sub-Collectorate held permanently by Provincial and Statutory Officers is 2, and from column 5 of the first table that the claims of Indian Civilians who arrived in 1884 must be satisfied before any more Provincial officers are promoted to a listed Sub-Collector-ate or higher post. This leaves out of account the Statutories (6 in number) who do not hold permanent Sub-Collectorates. ~~The promotion of~~ The promotion of these Statutories is dependent on their merit and ability but their claims to advancement will come into consideration after

D. O. No. 593.

NOTE.

The question of M.R.Ry. Ramachandra Rao's promotion was considered last August - please see the notes in the original of G.O. d/ 15-8-93, No. 645.

The facts there stated are recapitulated below, the figures being brought down to date.

2. In the extract from Home Deptt. letter d/ 8-9-90, No. 1543, Public [page 351 of the book file] it is stated that "the Civilians of succeeding years (i.e. after 1879-81) are ^{equally} entitled to have their legitimate claims to promotion safeguarded by providing that the extent to which promotion in the listed posts may be given to Statutory Civilians and Members of the Provincial Service combined shall not, except in..... special circumstances..... exceed the extent to which at the time of their recruitment, statutory appointments might have been made under the rules of 1879".

The interpretation to be placed on the underlined portion of the above extract is set out in Home Deptt. letter d/ 29-5-93, No. 746 [pages 847-9 of the book file]. The statement appended to India's letter was slightly modified in G.O. d/ 3-8-93, No. 600 [page 351 of the book file] and, as modified, it is issued monthly by the Accountant General together

My dear Sir,

I shall be very much obliged if you will convey to His Excellency the Governor my thanks for the copy of G.O. dated 3rd Aug 92 in 600 B.L. I have respectfully to submit to H.E. that under the figures shown in the Appendix to the G.O. there is nothing to preclude my promotion if Government be disposed to give it. The number shown against 1892 in col 9, the number of appointments that can be made from the Provincial service to listed posts of the claims of civilians recruited in England & Statutory civilians have been satisfied) is four. And only four places are now occupied viz (1) Secretary to the Board of Revenue (2) Assistant Secretary to Government (3) Judge (4) Assistant Collector. This shows that the hostel which I occupy may be filled up by me ~~if~~ far as the figures are concerned it does not matter whether I am a Dy Collector 5th grade (ie Assistant Collector) or on the 3rd grade (ie Dy Head Assistant Collector) provided the claims of all civilians are satisfied. All the Statutory civilians & all the civilians recruited in England ^{in the year 1890} my year of appointment are now at head assistant collectors (if not in a higher position) except Mr. J. Varada Rao whose case is peculiar.

If however the meaning of the apparent is that my claims are to be postponed to the civilians who arrived here in 1892, I beg to say this would be very hard. If I had continued in the Statutory service, I would have been confirmed in June 1892 and would have taken precedence over those civilians. I request Mr. H. may be pleased to show me this consideration.

Hoping to be excused for the intrusion

I am
yours truly
