FURTHER PAPER, No.

OF 189

Egmore, Madras, 14 November 1892

FROM

C. R. Jones Esq.
Chief Presidency Magistrate,
Madras,

TO

The Honble Mr. J. F. Price
Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to report for the orders of Government the case of Mr. Albert Ambrose, a Eurasian clerk in this office on Rupees 45 who has just passed through the Insolvency Court, and to submit the following documents.

- 1 - Mr. Ambrose's explanation as to the causes of his indebtedness.
- 2 - Copy of his petition to the Court.
- 3 - Copy of his Schedule of debts.
- 4 - Copy of the ^{discharge} order of the Court.
- 5 - Copy of the Court's Allocation Order.

2 - On my return from furlough
last April I found that several attachments order

for an explanation in order that a report might be submitted to Government. Mr. Ambrose informed me that he found himself obliged to seek relief in Court and intended to file his Schedule at once. I therefore allowed him to remain on duty pending the final order of the Court; this has now been received.

3. Mr. Ambrose explains that the original cause of his getting into debt was that he had to support his mother, a sick brother and a niece, and that having once got into the Sowcars' hands and having half his salary attached he quickly got deeper and deeper into difficulties. I have no reason to doubt the truth of this explanation; Mr. Ambrose may have been foolish in renewing promissory notes at ruinous cost but his indebtedness does not appear to have been caused by personal extravagance of any kind.

4. Mr. Ambrose has been 18 years a clerk in this office; he has always done his work well and is a steady

will conduct

about him. I hope that the trouble which have caused him will be a lesson to him and that now he draws his full salary (only having to pay Rupees 5 a month to the Official Assignee, will be able to avoid any further debt. Under these circumstances I respectfully recommend that Government may be pleased to allow him to remain in the service on condition that he contracts no further debts.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. Servant.

Madar,

A. Ambrose

It is also necessary for me to explain why I had allowed attachments of salary. The date fixed for payment into court if executed by a single day the judgment holder at once applies for a warrant, which is issued for the whole amount due and not for the particular instalment due. Some confusion prevailed under Chapter 39 of the first Indian Code, that provision of the law requires for the month the payment of a debt within a week or 10 days, notice is accordingly issued, and the demand cannot be met, then a warrant of attachment issues. Again if a debt is liquidated a debt by monthly instalment payments is disallowed by the S. 6 Code.

By the attached schedule it will be seen that the first instalment nearly 280 rupees or more and the balance represents the following proportion vizt. $\frac{5}{10}$ interest + $\frac{5}{10}$ actual cash received by me. I have paid Rs. 443 by attachment of salary.

Apologizing for any lengthened explanation.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedt. & very humble servant.
A. Ambrose

30th May 1891.

O. Re. James Esq^r
Chief Presidency Magistrate
Madras.

Sir,

I beg respectfully to offer the following explanation in regard to my insolvent state.

After the death of my father in 1882, I had to support my mother, a sister a brother and a niece. In 1886 my brother took ill and was sick for nearly a year, he suffered from Phthisis, and about the middle of 1887, succumbed to the disease. It was during his first illness that I felt the necessity to deal with the sorrows or money matters.
In the anxious expectations of my brother's recovery, medicines and diet were procured at any cost. I had not ready money at the time nor have had I any property which could have been converted into cash, except my salary.
The main source of income was lost to the family after the death of my father. Another item of expenditure on my brother's account was for visit for medical attendance, and the last item of expenditure, his funeral expenses, had to be defrayed by me. At this time I was the only bread winning member of the family, and the eldest. Thus the whole responsibility of the family rested on my shoulders.
