understand

Of the Office note is desirable but one might be passed prohibiting any young Indian from going up to a

I don't think any special rule is needed for a case which can but rarely occur.

Should not let him go up for the exam in Penal Code & before he gives his district, he see no objection

The rules being now under revision Mr. M. will make a few more searching exams
if he is allowed to go on.
Should simply say that

ENCLOSURES.

Subject.

Submitting, for the orders of Government, the application of Mr. Majoribanks, one of the newly arrived junior civilians, for examination in Division B by the Lower Standard.

For Orders.

Please see para 2 of G.O. 2711.
January 1864, No. 250. where it is stated that the tests (for the examination of Assistants) were framed with the intention that "Assistants
"should acquire the necessary knowledge
"in the actual course of business and not
"by a mere study of books"

The President states that Mr.
Majoribanks will be permitted to appear in a vernacular if he is posted to a Parnil or Talugu district before the examination (para 2 of the current). The rules lay down that the examination shall be in the vernacular of the district in which the Asst. is stationed (vide page 15 of the C. S. Manual). Mere posting to a district does not appear to be sufficient.

Perhaps it would be as well to lay down a rule that an Assistant cannot appear for any portion of the lower standard before he has been six months in the country.

The view taken by the President appears to be a proper one but there seems no reason why a young civilian should not be allowed to go up for a language test. I don't think that the rule suggests (the rule)

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. GROSE, Esq., M.A., President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 28th November 1893, No. 753.

Mr. Marjoribanks, one of the young Civilians who have arrived lately, has applied for examination in Division B of the Lower Standard next January.

2. Division B comprises a paper in the Penal Code, a paper in the Criminal Procedure Code and a decision in a Magisterial case.

3. Mr. Marjoribanks says: "With reference to Subject B, I should like to be examined in that also if I am allowed to appear for examination in a vernacular"—as he will be if he is posted to a Tamil or Telugu district before the examination—"I understand that the evidence in the Magisterial case included in Subject B is read out in such vernacular."

4. The rules do not forbid the examination in Division B at Madras of a newly-arrived Civilian, so I refer the application for the orders of Government; but my own opinion is that an examination in that subject should not be allowed until the examinee has entered upon his work. The questions and answers will then have a very different signification from what they have on first arrival in India.

ORDER—dated 8th January 1894, No. 8, Public.

The Government concurs with the President and is also pleased to direct that no junior Civilian shall be permitted to appear for examination in Division B of the Lower Standard until after he has joined his district.
