EMIGRATION.

Dated CALCUTTA, the 20th January 1894.

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 80 of the Indian Emigration Act, ~~XXXI~~ of 1883, and with reference to Notification No. 2351-57, dated 29th August 1893, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following amendment to Rule 99 of the Rules relating to Colonial Emigration, published with Revenue and Agricultural Department Notification No. 94 E., dated the 18th March 1886.

At the end of Rule 99 add the following:—

"When a vessel which has carried a salt cargo on her previous voyage is engaged, such vessel shall not be permitted to embark emigrants within fourteen days of the date of discharging such cargo; and no emigrant shall be embarked without the consent in writing of the Protector of Emigrants, who may, if he considers that the state of the vessel is likely to affect injuriously the health of the emigrants, extend the interval for such time as to him may seem necessary. On the day after the discharge of a cargo of salt, the master of the vessel shall furnish to the Protector of Emigrants for his satisfaction a certificate that such discharge has been completed."
