CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

CANDIDATES SELECTED IN 1893.

Final Examination.

October, 1894.

I.—TABLE OF MARKS, FINAL EXAMINATION.

II.—LIST RESULTING FROM THE COMBINED MARKS
OF THE OPEN COMPETITIVE AND FINAL EXAMINATIONS.

III.—LIST OF EXAMINERS.

NOTES.

1. No Candidate has at the Final Examination received credit in any subject for knowledge represented by less than one-fifth of the maximum, but the marks for knowledge beyond that standard have been assigned up to the maximum in proportion to the merit of the work.

2. Candidates who receive 200 marks for Riding have satisfied the Commissioners of their ability to ride well and to perform journeys on horse-back; those to whom no marks are assigned have gained only a certificate of minimum proficiency in riding.

3. The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the Selected Candidates will be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the combined marks of the Open Competitive and Final Examinations.

7. This deficiency is evidently the cause of the financial depression among immigrants, and the effect of the indiscriminate allotment reported to your Lordship in my Despatch No. 80 of September 28th 1892.

8. To avoid the continuance of the present unfortunate state of financial affairs, it will be necessary in the future for District Commissioners to devote more attention to entries in estate pay books, disallowing any occupation which is not included in the six forms of employment sanctioned by Convention. This supervision will entail a large amount of additional labour for the Commissioners, but it will now be only by drastic measures of reform that the entanglement of impositions borne by British Indian immigrants in Surinam can be diminished.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India to His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council No. 150 dated the 28th December 1887.

In continuation of my Public (Migration) Despatch No. 150 of the 28th November last, I forward for your consideration copy of a further Despatch (with its enclosure) from Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo on the subject of the insufficiency of the wages earned by Indian immigrants in Surinam.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, No. 40 dated 21st October 1887.

In continuation of my Despatch No. 150 of September 27th 1887, concerning the present financial condition of British Indian immigrants in Surinam, I have the honor to enclose herewith a statement showing that the Government authorities in this Colony, through seeming indifference and neglect, have allowed managers of estates to withhold from British Indian immigrants, wages due to them and amounting among the male immigrants alone to £18,059-9-6 for the year 1892. The wages withheld from female immigrants and boy and girl immigrants, are not considered in this Despatch but amount for the year to about £4,000-0-0.

2. According to the laws of Surinam and the Convention between Great Britain and the Netherlands, each immigrant must be accounted for in the estate pay books, in one way or another, during six days of every year. (Article VIII and XII of the Convention) and must be paid a minimum wage of 60 Dutch cents for each day on which he is able to work. (The Labour Regulation of Surinam states "should work not be provided on any working day a full day's minimum rate of wages will be paid notwithstanding

3. The entries in estate pay books, showing occupation of time, can only be made under the heads of:-

- "Work performed,"
- "Sickness in Hospital,"
- "Imprisonment,"
- "Wilful absence from work,"
- "Holidays," and,
- "Leave, to lodge complaints."

4. Should an indentured immigrant absent himself from work, and the manager not immediately issue a summons against the immigrant for the non-performance of, or non-appearance for contracted duties, the manager of the estate thereby demonstrates his acquiescence to the absence, and becomes liable to the immigrant in the amount of wage due for the day. (Labour Regulation of Surinam.)

5. This regulation and law is not enforced by the Immigration Department, by the Courts of Justice, or by the District Commissioners of Surinam, and it is owing to this lack of Government supervision over the financial details of estates that the system of curtailing legal wages due to immigrants has arisen among managers.

6. From the Annual Report on Immigration for each year, it should be possible to produce a time-table account showing on the debit side a number of tasks equal to six times the number of indentured immigrants in the Colony. On the credit side of the account, should be shown the number of tasks consumed in each of the six classes of occupation mentioned in paragraph 3 of this Despatch. The debit and credit sides of such an account should balance exactly, but, as will be seen from the enclosed account a deficiency of 809591 tasks is shown, which at the average price paid for work in this colony during 1892, shows a balance due from managers of estates to British Indian male immigrants of £18,059 - 9 - 6.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India to His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council No.156 dated the 28th. December'92 1893.

In continuation of my Public (Emigration) Despatch No.130 of the 9th. November last, I forward for your consideration copy of a further No.40 dated 21st.October 1893. Despatch (with its enclosure) from Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo on the subject of the insufficiency of the wages earned by Indian immigrants in Surinam.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, No.40 dated 21st. October 1893.

In continuation of my Despatch No.36 of September 23rd. 1893, concerning the present financial condition of British Indian immigrants in Surinam, I have the honor to enclose herewith a statement showing that the government authorities in this Colony, through seeming indifference and neglect, have allowed managers of estates to withhold from British Indian immigrants, wages due to them and amounting among the male immigrants alone to £18,059.9.6 for the year 1892.
