26TH NOVEMBER 1894, No. 1508, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 26th November 1894, No. 1508, Pension.

It is observed that menial servants such as sweepers, watermen, toties, punkah-pullers and tailors, whose duties are purely manual have in the past been admitted to pension either in accordance with precedents or on the ground that they were included in permanent and sanctioned establishments. But the general principle governing the grant of pensions is that all service under Government of a permanent nature qualifies, except such as is of a purely manual kind, and in this view gardeners and dhobies have been excluded from the Pension

G.O., dated 21st August 1875, No. 489. List as per Government Orders marginally
 " " 10th October 1882, No. 956. noted; and similar orders were more recently passed in regard to carpenters and workmen on the Government Central Museum Establishment (vide G.O., dated 15th February 1894, No. 122, Revenue). In the Public Works Department also it was ruled that service as a lascar counted for pension, but that cases of watchmen, &c., paid from "Works" should be specially considered on their merits (vide G.O., dated 8th May 1894, No. 1137 W.), the presumption being that such service was non-pensionable.

2. No definite rules appear to have been framed to govern such cases, and the Government desires to be in possession of the views of the Accountant-General and of all Heads of Departments on the subject. Pensions have hitherto been granted to sweepers in several instances, and it is understood that such servants are often regarded as subordinate peons and are employed upon peons' duties. It is desirable, however, that the practice should be uniform and should be well understood by all concerned. It should accordingly be reported whether in the opinion of Heads of Departments it is desirable to admit any menial servants to the Pension List.
