The humble memorial of Rahmuth Bee Bee, daughter of late Subadar Major Sardar Bahadur Syed Ismail of the 34th Regiment Chicacole Light Infantry residing at Washermanpetta Madras. most humbly Sheweth,

That your humble memorialist most respectfully and humbly begs to submit the following circumstances for your honor's benevolent consideration and inportune, your honor to redress her real and distressing case with that ready and even handed kindness and justice, with which your honor is proverbially known to discuss the rights and claims of however humble or low a person's station in life may be, as well as of the weakest of Her Gracious Majesty's Loyal Subjects

Subjects and faithful servants.

Your memorialist is the daughter of the highest standing Native Commissioned Officers of the Indian Army, holding the Rank of Subadar Major Siradar Bahadur named Syed Ismail of the 34th Regiment Chisacole Light Infantry a statement of whose services are shown in the list herewith subjoined.

Your memorialist's father was decorated by the Indian Government with 1st & 2nd Classes Orders of British India in addition to his Regimental rank and Title of Siradar Bahadur for his gallantry as a soldier and served for a period extending over 42 years and died as Pensioner on 14th October 1893.

That memorialist's father was engaged in several battles and achievements with his Regiment and shared the honor of a faithful and gallant gallant soldier. He distinguished himself while on Field Service in Bengal from 23rd October 1848 to 14th March 1850 where he was wounded and a number of Certificates were granted him on the occasion. by by the Officers under whom he had the honor to serve from time to time.

Memorialist being left quite unprovided for without any income whatsoever or a relative to render any help, she throws herself at your honors feet that you may look on her with an eye of Compassion and lay her case before Parliament that some provision may be made for her in Consideration of her deceased fathers services by granting a compassionate Allowance for her subsistence however small the pittance may be it shall be most thankfully accepted - and who will ever foray.
