Madras 29th August 1895

To

The Superintendent Government Press.

Madras.

Honored Sir,

I respectfully beg to lay before you the following few lines in the hope that they may meet your kind approval.

That on the 26th June 1895 while on my way to the Victor Press to print some cards for my sister's marriage and having got them printed I took some of the tickets and deliver them to my relatives and on my way I met my friend in a carriage those that are joined in this case at Chinthadarapet Bazaar one of them named Chellacooty asked me where I was going to and I told him that my sister was to be married on Sunday the 30th June 1895 I am going to deliver the tickets and they asked me to wait a while I shall also follow with you therefore I stayed a few minutes in the street promising to accompany me but as I had no time I went away assuring to meet you on my return and on my way back I saw my friend quarrelling with the Bazaarman while I was trying to prevent the quarrel my brother who lives there happened to come that side and he asked me what I was doing and advised me to get away home by carriage as it was getting dark and while returning home they also accompanied.

me in the carriage and after going a short distance the Driver of the Station House who was lately dismissed named Jovindarajulu Nayudu and some others attacked the carriage and asked us to come down and then the Pargarmen sent for a Constable and asked him to take hold of my companion and the Constable did so among the two one of them escaped and after a short time after witnessing this I came home The next day I heard that the Constable came in the search of me at that time I went to purchase some envelopes on my return I went to the Constable and asked him what was the matter and what he wanted me for and they told me that the Inspector wanted me for my evidence and I told them that I had no leisure just now because I want to deliver the tickets to my Office requested him to tell the Inspector that I will see him after a few hours but he insisted on me coming at once and according I followed him and the Inspector told me that he wont leave me unless I get somebody to stand security. And mistaking me for the man who ran away imprisoned me.
After a few days they caught the man who escaped and instructed him to plead ignorance of the whole affair because he paid them a bribe therefore the Constable taught him to say as he instructed when the case came on for hearing he was dismissed and I was sentenced to imprisonment and as I have been serving under your honor for the past 8 years from the year 1888 I beg your honor will take my case into consideration as I was punished for no cause whatever have me restored to my former appointment.

For whole act of kindness I shall feel highly grateful

No. 3476

MINT BUILDINGS, MADRAS,

25th November 1895.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits for favourable consideration an appeal petition from V. Jagannayudu Naidu, Clerk a compositor of this office for reinstatement to his former post. He was dismissed, having been judicially convicted of a crime committed by him out of office, and imprisoned. As regards his behaviour in the office there is nothing recorded against him.

OFFICE NOTE.

In reply to Endorsement No. 2874 dated 29th November 1895, on Public Current No. 3983 — herewith returned, the Superintendent Government Press, submits that in the absence of any definite order in article 217 of Civil Service Regulations regarding the action to be taken of convicted employees of Govt. V. Jagannayagulu was dismissed. As it was subsequently discovered that in two similar cases of G. Chinnaiah and V. Dainadigamony, (both Compositors) Government had been pleased to reinstate them under G.O. 1298 Public dated 29-8-78 and 945 Public dated 11-11-91 respectively, the endorsement referred to was given him and the order of dismissal treated as one of suspension.

ending the order of Government on his appeal.

2. V. Jaganayaculu was entertained as compositor in the Government Press, in May 1888.
