My dear Turner.

Yours of the 13th instant has been read in Council.

It is understood that if you could obtain privilege leave from about April you would be disposed to change your mind with regard to retiring.

I am to tell you that if this is as Government considers that there not be any difficulty as regards granting your leave.

Yours sincerely,
Edw. J. Price.

In accordance with instructions at the last Council Meeting - I have seen Mr. L. Turner & spoken with him on the subject of his proposed retirement. Mr. T. tells me that some time ago he wrote to Mr. Austin inquiring what his plans were and whether he contemplated returning to India at the end of his furlough in Nov-1895. A reply from Mr. Austin is expected shortly, and meanwhile Mr. Turner is willing to allow the question of his retirement to remain in abeyance.

2. In the event of Mr. Austin signifying his intention to return to duty, Mr. Turner will ask for privilege leave; should Mr. Austin decide not to return Mr. T. would like to leave the service in April next -
