On further enquiry I learn that Lt Maclean has been absent from his duties for two years his employment in R. Coorg not allowing him to attend drills & inspections. Otherwise there is nothing against him as he is a popular officer. It was however, desirable that an officer should be appointed to Command R. Coorg who would be able to attend to the duties, & in opinion of the J. R. was taken by ballot which resulted in the
