CHIEF SECRETARY

12 SEP. 1895

My dear Mr. [unclear], I am applying today for 1 years furlough from the 20th October. I hope my applying such a short time before I want leave will not put you to inconvenience.
I had intended taking furlough in April or May next, but I find myself so busy that I have determined to go sooner if I can get leave. It is nearly 9 years since I have had furlough & over 4 years on the west coast have played havoc with my nerves. I thought I might pull together again. but I find I am not doing so it is better to take a change at once.

I shall send you a telegram today informing you of my application

Remain
yours sincerely
W. L. Johnson
