Simla, the 1st October 1895.

SIR,

I AM directed to request that all communications intended for this office—which are not of an urgent nature—that cannot reach Simla by the morning of the 29th October may be addressed to Calcutta. Urgent letters and telegrams may be addressed to Simla, provided they can reach their destination by the 2nd November, but should be addressed to Calcutta after that date.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. Thornton

Deputy Secy. to the Govt. of India.
