From J. H. Rowlinson Esq.
Accountant General to the Government of Madras.

To
The Secretary General, Ceylon Free, Madras.

Sir,
With reference to your letter No. 3296 dated the 4th December 1894, I have the honor to state that as under Article 173 II of the Civil Account Code, there should be two trustees to every endowment, you should address Government to appoint another along with the Director of Public Instruction, and then the office will issue a revised interest order.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Yours most obedt. Servt.
J. H. Rowlinson
Accountant General.

Sir,

In forwarding copy of letter received from the Accountant General M. J. K. of the 19th December '94 I have the honor to point out with reference to the Order of Government No 1510 of the 6th March 1893 that the Controller of Military Accounts is no longer a Director of the Press and Col
Lawyer has refused to sign the Interest Order on the Press Pension Fund, and to request therefore that the Venerable the Archbishop's name be substituted for

Case No. 18.

San G. O. of 6th April 1896. No. 390 Public
of the Committee, Press was requested to consider whether a share of the annual profits might not be set apart for deposit in Government Securities, the interest
accruing therefrom
being utilised for the payment of pensions
and gratuities to the Press employees. The Press authorities decided to allot ten per cent of the annual profits
to form a pension fund (G. O. of 19.5.96
No. 568 Public). The investments amounted to Rs 12,000 in 1880 (G. O.
of 24.2.80 No. 307 Public)
and to Rs 37,500 in 1896.
The fund is a charitable endowment under act

The sum is included in the account. The inclusion of the fund in the list of the Press Pension Fund is the general law of the Press Pension Fund of 1880
No. 307 Public.

I doubt this very much. The setting aside of this money & the disposal of the interest thereon is not regulated by any law or deed of trust but is a matter merely depending on the pleasure of the trustees for the time being.

II of 1890; and in accordance with Section 173 (ii) of the Civil Account Code there must be two Trustees.
In 1891 the Trustees
were the Commissioners General and the Director of Public Instruction. On the former ceasing to be a Director of the Press
the Controller of Military Accounts who succeeded him as Director became a Trustee of the fund
in his stead. (G. C.
186 Public). The
²⁸⁻²⁻⁹³ Controller of Military Accounts is no longer a Director of the Press and Colonel Lawyer refused to sign the Interest Order on the Pension Fund. The Secretary of the Press requests that the Venerable
the

the Archdeacon be appointed a Co-Trustee with the Director of Public Instruction.
Submitted that this may be done if the Archdeacon has no
objection.
