(Establishments)

CHIEF SECRETARY
11 OCT. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Simla, the 11th October 1895.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1046, dated the 2nd ultimo, I am directed to say that no orders have been received from the Secretary of State on the memorial from Mr. R. Ramchandra Rao, of the Madras Provincial Service, praying for permission to exercise the right of electing whether he will remain in the position of a Statutory Civilian or will join the Provincial Service. I am to add that a reference has been made to the India Office, enquiring whether the Secretary of State intends to pass any orders on the memorial.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. Thornton

Depy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
