From
A. W. B. Higgins Esquire, District Magistrate of Trincomally,
To
The Chief Secretary to Government
^{Public} Judicial Department,
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for the orders of Government an application from Rev. H. Noble, Missionary of the Strict Baptist Mission, Trincomally District, for the issue of a license under the Indian Christian Marriage Act to the Rev. Ernest Alfred Booth.

2. It would appear that the adherents of the mission are 710 persons belonging to 61 villages spread over 5 taluqs in the district.
3. The Rev. H. Noble is the only person belonging to this mission who has a license under the Act. It is reported that although he is not incapacitated from work, he is not now sufficiently active to attend to the whole of his duties without help. Mr. Booth is stated to have been sent ^{out} from England as a missionary ^{by} of the Strict Baptist Mission and is now stationed in Keilpatti, which is also the head-quarters of Mr. Noble.

4. In the circumstances, ^{I consider that} a license may be issued in favor of the Rev. E. A. Booth.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Magistrate.
