Volunteers.
Regulations.

No. 2613-B.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 30th September 1895.

It is requested that the above heading, with number and date of this communication, may be quoted in any subsequent correspondence on this subject.

To

THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL IN INDIA.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 354-E, dated the 25th June 1895, submitting, for the approval of the Government of India, a revise* of Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, "Volunteers." It is

* Herewith returned.
explained that this Code has been altered to accord with the procedure to be followed consequent on the abolition of the Presidential Army System; and the phraseology of the old edition has been amended in parts.

2. Attention is also invited to the following matters :—

- (a) The establishment of Naval Volunteers has been omitted, pending the orders of the Government of India on the proposals for revising this establishment.
- (b) The words "of officers" might be inserted between the words "or" and "to" in the second line of the red ink addition at foot of page 20.
- (c) The part of the paragraph in red ink at page 43, regarding corps in Hyderabad and the Central Provinces being under Lieutenant-Generals Commanding for field day purposes, has been inserted, subject to the approval of Government.
- (d) The rules for best shot medals will require amendment should the Government of India decide to adopt the proposals in Adjutant-General's letter No. 261-E, dated 6th June 1895.
- (e) The provisions of the Bill to amend the Indian Volunteers' Act have been inserted in Appendix I of the Code.
- (f) The form of statement of Assets and Liabilities of Volunteer Corps, inserted as Appendix XXXIII, is for the approval of the Government of India.

3. In reply I am to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India are of opinion that Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, permission to again revise which has been applied for in Adjutant-General's letter No. 1061-C, dated 5th June 1895, should, like other volumes of India Army Regulations, be condensed, and the code of rules therein made as clear and concise as may be possible. As, however, this would considerably delay the issue of the Code, and a corrected edition is much needed, the Government of India approve the revised Volume IX submitted with your letter under reply, with the modifications stated below, as a "provisional issue." The Code can be completely revised hereafter together with the other Volumes of Army Regulations, India, mentioned in your No. 1061-C, dated 5th June 1895. I am to request that you will be so good as to issue the necessary instructions to the Superintendent, Government Printing, India, for the printing off and issue of the provisional edition, which may be bound in paper covers.

4. With reference to the points mentioned in paragraph 2 above, I am to remark as follows :—

- (a) The present establishment of Naval Volunteers should be shewn in the revised Code. When the proposed revised establishment is approved the necessary corrections might be made.
- (b) This suggestion may be adopted. It has been included in the revise.
- (c) The proposal regarding corps in Hyderabad and the Central Provinces being under the Lieutenant-General Commanding for field day purposes was approved in Military Department letter No. 1784-B, dated 18th June 1895.
- (d) The question of revising the rules for the grant of the best shot medals is under consideration. Meanwhile the present rules may be allowed to stand.
- (e) As the Volunteer Act Amendment Bill has not yet been passed, the old Bill should be shewn in Appendix I of the revised Code. A revised appendix can be issued when the Bill has become law.
- (f) The form of statement showing Assets and Liabilities of Volunteer Corps was approved in Military Department letter No. 1932-B, dated 3rd July 1895.

5. As corrections have been included in the Code after 1st May 1895, I am to suggest that "1st May 1895" in the memorandum on the first page of the Code should be altered to "1st August 1895."

6. No index to the Code has been appended. I am to ask that the volume may be carefully and fully indexed before printing off.

7. One thousand and five hundred copies of the "provisional issue" should be printed, and distributed as shewn in the accompanying list.

It is requested that the above heading, with number and date of this communication, may be quoted in any subsequent correspondence on this subject.

To

THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL IN INDIA.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 354-E, dated the 25th June 1895, submitting, for the approval of the Government of India, a revise* of Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, "Volunteers." It is explained that this Code has been altered to accord with the procedure to be followed consequent on the abolition of the Presidential Army System; and the phraseology of the old edition has been amended in parts.

* Herewith returned.

2. Attention is also invited to the following matters :—

- (a) The establishment of Naval Volunteers has been omitted, pending the orders of the Government of India on the proposals for revising this establishment.
- (b) The words "of officers" might be inserted between the words "or" and "to" in the second line of the red ink addition at foot of page 20.
- (c) The part of the paragraph in red ink at page 43, regarding corps in Hyderabad and the Central Provinces being under Lieutenant-Generals Commanding for field day purposes, has been inserted, subject to the approval of Government.
- (d) The rules for best shot medals will require amendment should the Government of India decide to adopt the proposals in Adjutant-General's letter No. 261-E, dated 6th June 1895.
- (e) The provisions of the Bill to amend the Indian Volunteers' Act have been inserted in Appendix I of the Code.
- (f) The form of statement of Assets and Liabilities of Volunteer Corps, inserted as Appendix XXXIII, is for the approval of the Government of India.

3. In reply I am to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India are of opinion that Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, permission to again revise which has been applied for in Adjutant-General's letter No. 1061-C, dated 5th June 1895, should, like other volumes of India Army Regulations, be condensed, and the code of rules therein made as clear and concise as may be possible. As, however, this would considerably delay the issue of the Code, and a corrected edition is much needed, the Government of India approve the revised Volume IX submitted with your letter under reply, with the modifications stated below, as a "provisional issue." The Code can be completely revised hereafter together with the other Volumes of Army Regulations, India, mentioned in your No. 1061-C, dated 5th June 1895. I am to request that you will be so good as to issue the necessary instructions to the Superintendent, Government Printing, India, for the printing off and issue of the provisional edition, which may be bound in paper covers.

4. With reference to the points mentioned in paragraph 2 above, I am to remark as follows :—

- (a) The present establishment of Naval Volunteers should be shewn in the revised Code. When the proposed revised establishment is approved the necessary corrections might be made.
- (b) This suggestion may be adopted. It has been included in the revise.
- (c) The proposal regarding corps in Hyderabad and the Central Provinces being under the Lieutenant-General Commanding for field day purposes was approved in Military Department letter No. 1784-B, dated 18th June 1895.
- (d) The question of revising the rules for the grant of the best shot medals is under consideration. Meanwhile the present rules may be allowed to stand.
- (e) As the Volunteer Act Amendment Bill has not yet been passed, the old Bill should be shewn in Appendix I of the revised Code. A revised appendix can be issued when the Bill has become law.
- (f) The form of statement showing Assets and Liabilities of Volunteer Corps was approved in Military Department letter No. 1932-B, dated 3rd July 1895.
