READ—the following paper :—

From the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages, dated 27th September 1895, T. No. 230.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting budget estimate for 1896-97.

ORDER—No. 766, Financial, dated 4th October 1895.

The provision for the additional establishment will be retained, pending the receipt of the Inspector-General's proposals on the subject. The allotment for Contingencies has been reduced with reference to past actuals, and the estimate as accepted is shown in the appendix to these proceedings.

2. The certificate prescribed in rule 10 of the instructions circulated with G.O., No. 602, dated 20th August 1895, which has been omitted, should be furnished at an early date.

EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) A provision of Rs. 840 has been made under Establishments in the budget estimate as representing the cost of the additional establishment, which it is found necessary to employ for carrying on the work of the Birth, Death and Marriage department efficiently. Separate proposals on this subject will be submitted at once for the sanction of Government. An additional provision of Rs. 280 has been included in the revised estimate for the pay of this establishment from 1st November 1895. The revision of the establishment in the Birth, Death and Marriage department of the Inspector-General's office was taken up after the scheme for the grading of the staff of Registrars and Sub-Registrars was submitted. An almirah was purchased in 1894-95, but an additional almirah is required for the increasing records of the department.

(b) Provision is made for the purchase of an additional almirah for preserving records and returns. An almirah was purchased in 1894-95, but an additional almirah is required for the increasing records of the department.

(c) Provision is made for binding charges, as it is proposed to bind into volumes the Birth, Death and Marriage returns and certificates which are kept in bundles.
