Dear Mr Price

I write to inform you that I have arrived in India, and am now spending the rest of my furlough, wh. expires on December 7th, with my father in Bengal Under these circumstances I understand that I am allowed no subsidiary leave (or joining time) before taking up my appointment.
May I therefore venture to ask you to be so good as to let me know the station to wh. I shall be

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

posted on my return to duty.

I propose to offer myself at the January examination for the one subject of the lower standard, in wh. I failed to qualify in June 1894 - namely Penal Code.

Can you kindly let me know whether I would, under the unusual circumstance of - rejoining from India, be allowed at least a day or two in Madras for the purpose of getting together my servants, horses, carts & camp equipage, before joining my station?

Believe me

Yours very truly
J. J. Cotton

DEPARTMENT OF MADRAS

My dear Mr. Rice,

There seems to be nothing to prevent Mr. Cotton coming to Madras a day or so before the 7th Dec. if he has business here. His case is not different from that of any one else who spends his fortnight in India.
If Govt. are unable to tell him where to go at the last moment, he can be parted joining train under article

254 C.M. I return his letter.
Yours truly
H. Harrison
