GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Dear Mr. Rice,
I am sorry to hear that you are likely to have to revert about the end of the year. I shall have a year's leave to me in November. I was going to apply for leave from March next. If, however, I have to revert, I prefer to take it from the date of my being transferred of this.

Yours sincerely
M. S. Rice.

Dear Mr. Price,

I am sure that Ransom is not likely to come back after all. If I am not turned out by somebody else I should prefer to postpone my leave until next March
or April.
I should be grateful if you could let me know as I am depending on my horses & things owned by me.
Keep some of them if I am
to stay on.

Yours sincerely

My dear Mr. Ball,

Although Raman
is not going to Sellicherry, Ross returns on the 16th
and is to be posted to Jinnah, turning out Maclod who will take your place.
You are certain never something very unexpected returns to be visited by Ross's return.

Yours sincerely,
